

I am deeply opposed to the lifting of the ban of cell phones on commercial air flights. Please leave this ban in place! Airplanes are the last place in our society where we have peace from cell phones.